Thursday 12th

Eve of the Feast of St Mungo

5:30pm First Vespers of St Kentigern, Patron Saint of Glasgow

For the first time since the Reformation, a complete office for the city's patron saint will be sung in the Cathedral dedicated to him since the twelfth century. The Cathedral doors open at 5pm for the display of Tom Allan's sculpture, and facsimiles of the Office from the thirteenth-century Sprouston Breviary, displayed on this occasion by kind permission of the Trustees of the National Library of Scotland. The service is sung by The Cantors of the Holy Rude, directed by Alan Henderson. All are welcome to this free service.
